

ALLIANCE FOR RESPONSE LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

NOVEMBER 30, 2010

Be a Survivor, Don't Be an Island

Opportunities to Connect...

- Local Emergency Planning Committees (LEPCs)
- Emergency Management Director Training
- Citizen's Corp/Civilian Emergency Response Team (CERT) Training
- Annual State Emergency Preparedness Conference
- State Support Function 11 Workshops
- Town Meetings
- Continuity of Operations Planning

- Incident Command System Training
- Vermont League of Cities & Towns
- Other Training & Exercise Opportunities
- Hazard Mitigation Planning & Projects

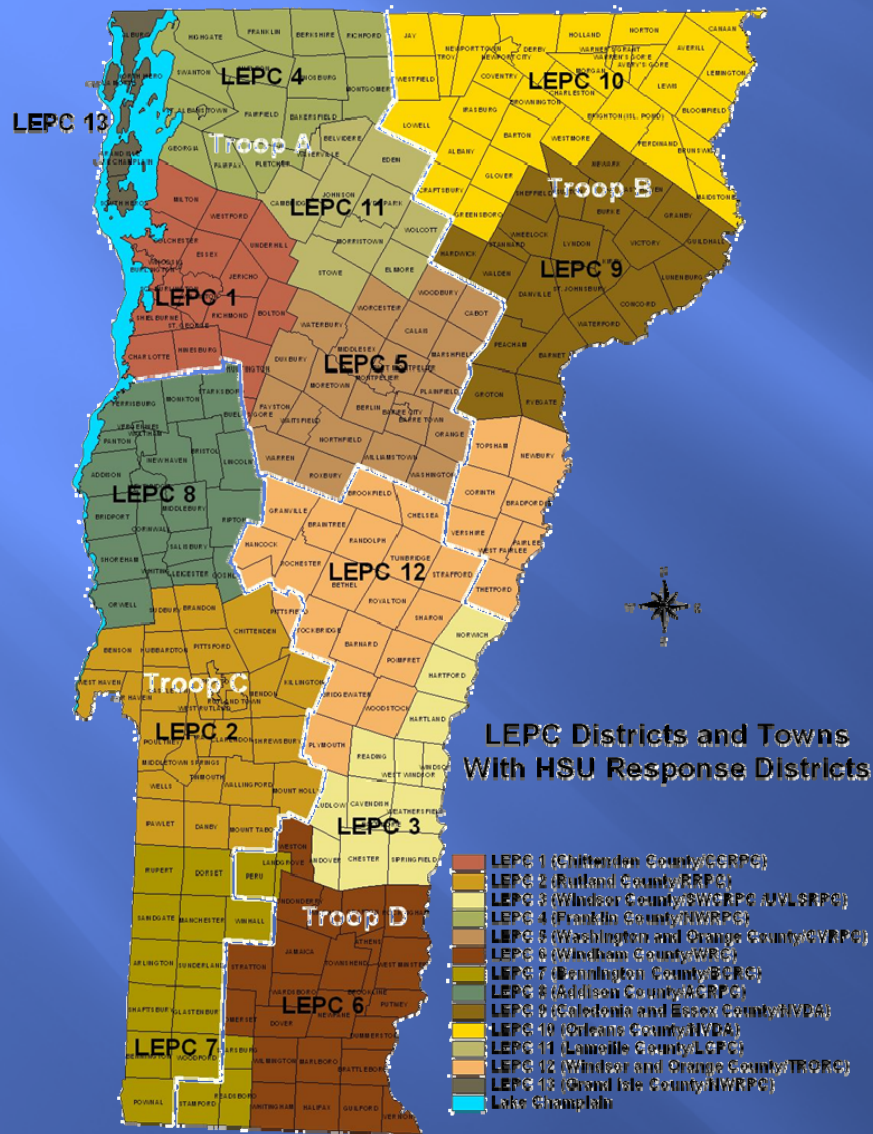

Vermont Government – Emergency Management Considerations

- State & Local Government, No County Level
- Regional Planning Commissions assist with Town Planning
- Emergency Management Organizations at State & Local Levels outlined in statute
- LEPCs provide a forum for All-Hazards Emergency Planning
- Vermont is NIMS Compliant per Governor's Executive Order
- 95% of First Response Organizations are Volunteer

- State & Local Emergency Operations Plans
- Flooding is the Primary Hazard Statewide
- Structure Fires are the Primary Local Hazard
- Hazardous Materials has a High Potential for Occurance

Local Emergency Planning Committees

LEPC 1 - Chittenden

LEPC 2 - Rutland

LEPC 3 - Windsor and parts of Orange

LEPC 4 - Franklin and Grand Isle

LEPC 5 - Washington and parts of Orange

LEPC 6 - Windham

LEPC 7 - Bennington

LEPC 8 - Addison

LEPC 9 - Caledonia and Essex

LEPC 10 - Orleans

LEPC 11 – Lamoille

LEPC 12 – Windsor / Orange

LEPC 13 – Grande Isle

Burnham Hall (Lincoln, VT)

Hazard Mitigation Project

- ▣ 2 story structure
- ▣ Very near to New Haven river
- ▣ History of flood inundation: 1927, 1938, 1976, 1989, 1998
- ▣ Up to 5 ft of flood water in 1st floor

Floodproofing Measures

- ▣ Watertight barriers on windows, doors
- ▣ Seal electrical, telephone, fuel line openings
- ▣ Install backflow valves in sewer lines
- ▣ Install under slab water collection system and sump pump
- ▣ Install above slab water collection system and sump pump
- ▣ Install discharge pump to drain water
- ▣ Elevation of boiler and heating units

Unrestored Interior View

New Boiler

Outside Door with Removable Panels

Burnham Hall

May, 2010

- ▣ Wet flood-proofing completed (Flood Mitigation Assistance Program Grant)
- ▣ Dry flood-proofing completed (Pre-Disaster Mitigation – Competitive Program Grant)

ALLIANCE FOR RESPONSE LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

NOVEMBER 30, 2010

Be a Survivor, Don't Be an Island
Questions?