Paintings Specialty Group Rules of Order

1. Definition

The group is a Division of the American Institute for Conservation (AIC) and is therefore bound by the Bylaws of the Institute and the policies set by the Institute’s Board of Directors.

2. Mission

The group supports painting conservation professionals in preserving cultural heritage by establishing and upholding professional standards, promoting research and publications, providing educational opportunities, and fostering the exchange of knowledge among conservators, allied professionals, and the public.

3. Membership

Membership is open to any member of the Institute upon payment of annual dues. Members have the right to vote on election of officers, changes to the Rules of Order, membership dues increase, and any other issues requiring a vote. All members are eligible to hold office and serve on committees. All members are entitled to receive any group publications and communications.

4. Governance

4.1. Officers

4.1.1 Chair Emeritus/us: advises current officers. Term is two (2) years.

4.1.2 Chair: communicates activities to the membership, moderates the annual business meeting, facilitates budget, has authority to make final decisions on all issues, consulting with the other officers as necessary. Term is two (2) years. After term, the Chair assumes role of Chair Emeritus/us.

4.1.3 Program Chair: chairs the annual meeting program. Term is one (1) year.

4.1.4 Assistant Program Chair: assists the Program Chair. Term is one (1) year. After term, the Assistant Program Chair assumes the role of Program Chair.

4.1.5 Secretary/Treasurer: maintains a written record of the meetings and activities, prepares an annual budget and provides an accounting of all expenditures prior to the annual business meeting. Term is two (2) years.

4.1.6 Publications Committee Chair: oversees the committee and appoints committee members, manages all publications and resources for the group.
Term is two (2) years, which may be renewed for second term. After term, assumes the role of Publications Committee Chair Emerita/us.

4.1.6.1 Postprints Editor: prepares the group's annual postprints and disseminates them to the membership. Term is two (2) years, which may be renewed for a second term. After the term, assumes the role of Postprints Editor Emerita/us for an additional two (2) years.

4.1.6.2 Wiki Editor-in-Chief: appoints members of editorial team and oversees and coordinates wiki content creation. Term is two (2) years.

4.2. Elections

4.2.1. A Nominating Committee, consisting of the Chair Emerita/us and two elected members, puts out a call for nominations.

4.2.2. Elections for officers are held in conjunction with the Institute's other elected positions.

4.2.3. Chair withholds vote in case of a tie.

4.2.4. Newly elected officers take office at the annual business meeting.

4.2.5. Officers serve for no more than four consecutive years. If an officer resigns, the officers will appoint someone to serve out the remaining term. Any Officer may be removed, with or without cause, by a three-fifths (3/5) majority vote of the Officers.

4.3. Committees

4.3.1. Chair appoints members for committee positions.

4.3.2. The chairs of those committees may appoint additional members at their discretion.

5. Meetings

5.1. Business Meeting: the group holds its business meeting annually during the Institute's annual meeting.

5.2. Internal Advisory Group (IAG): the Chair attends the meeting each year. If the Chair cannot attend, they must appoint another officer to attend in their stead.

6. Finances

6.1. Income

6.1.1. Dues: The Institute collects dues and holds income in trust for the group.

6.1.2. Fundraising: The Institute sets rules and procedures for and assists the group when fundraising for programs and events.

6.2. Expenditures
6.2.1. The Chair may spend up to $1,000 per annum for unbudgeted expenses. Discretionary spending must be communicated to the group's membership. Amounts in excess must be approved by the group's membership.

6.2.2. The group reimburses non-funded officers for annual meeting registrations.

7. Amendments

The group may amend, repeal or alter, in whole or part, the rules with a two thirds (2/3) majority vote and not less than twenty five percent of members voting. Notice of any proposed Rules change or changes must be furnished in writing to the members entitled to vote not less than thirty (30) days prior to the vote.